

Dear Fellow SRS Members,

SGX has launched today a new product on Hongkong SDRs.

The 5 counters are: Alibaba, Tencent, BYD, HSBC and Bank of China.

You may find out more: <https://www.sgx.com/campaign/sdr>

From 30th October 2024, SGX is expanding our suite of Singapore Depository Receipts (SDR) to cover Hong Kong stocks with the introduction of 5 new names: Alibaba (HBBD), Tencent (HTCD), BYD (HYDD), HSBC (HSHD), Bank of China (HBND).

The suite of HK SDR provides thematic exposures to evolving global trends in AI transformation, EV transition and financials, allowing investors to flexibly diversify their portfolios. HK SDR differentiates from traditional route of access with key benefits being.

1. Bite-sized investment sums – invest in leading HK listed companies from just S$100. For example, investing in BYD would only require minimum sum of S$460 via SDR compared to S$23,000 via HK shares.

SDR Trading Name	SGX Trading Code	SDR : Underlying Shares Ratio	SDR Board Lot	SDR Price*	SDR Minimum Trading Size*	HK Minimum Trading Size*
Tencent HK SDR 10to1	HTCD	10 : 1	100	S$7.34	S$734	S$7,342
BYD HK SDR 10to1	HYDD	10 : 1	100	S$4.69	S$469	S$23,433

Bank of China HK SDR 1to1	HBND	1 : 1	100	S$0.61	S$61	S$610

*As at 30 Sep 2024

2. Pre and post market access – manage positions ahead and after HK market hours during the 9-930am and 4-5pm windows. For example, during the 8Oct24 Hong Kong sell-off, more than $4m or 20% of SGX Hang Seng Tech ETF was traded outside onshore market hours.

3. Trade in Singapore dollars on SGX – SDR are available on SGX via local brokers and are custodised with CDP with dividends paid in Singapore dollars.

SDR trades in board lot size of 100 units, and are fungible with the underlying shares listed in Hong Kong. SDR are traded on all Singapore trading days, including on days where the Hong Kong market is closed. The upcoming Hong Kong market holidays are 25 and 26 December.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish all our SRS Indian Members A Very Happy & Blessed Deepavali & the rest Happy Holidays. :-)

Warmest regards,

S Nallakaruppan
